Important Notes: Since 2012, all PLS members have been required to complete a range familiarization session prior to receiving their PLS member credentials. Returning members, who have completed a range familiarization session within the previous three years, will not be required to repeat the session, but will be required to certify that they have completed the range session and agree to abide by the club rules document.

Starting with the 2025 membership year, all members are also required to attend a hands-on Safety Briefing prior to receiving their PLS member credentials.

A schedule of safety briefings will be emailed to the club list, posted on the club website, and also on the calendar as they become available.

The rules are posted on the club web site.
(<http://www.portagelakeclub.org/rules.html>) Please review the calendar on the club web site, <http://www.portagelakeclub.org>, for scheduled Safety Briefings.
